

ONE NEIGHBOR TELLS ANOTHER

Points the Way to Comfort and Health. Other Women Please Read

Moundsville, W. Va.—"I had taken doctor's medicine for nearly two years because my periods were irregular, came every two weeks, and I would suffer with bearing-down pains. A lady told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how much good it had done her daughter, so I took it and now I am regular every month and have no pain at all. I recommend your medicine to everyone and you may publish my testimonial, hoping that the Vegetable Compound does some other girl the good it has done me."—Mrs. GEORGE TEGARDEN, 915 Third Street, Moundsville, W. Va.

How many young girls suffer as Mrs. Tegarden did and do not know where to turn for advice or help. They often are obliged to earn their living by toiling day in and day out no matter how hard the pain they have to bear. Every girl who suffers in this way should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if she does not get prompt relief write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts, about her health. Such letters are held in strict confidence.

CAMP KNOX FUTURE TO BE DECIDED.

Whether Camp Knox, Ky., is to be retained as one of the three big training camps of the army will probably be determined within a few days. Because of the efforts of the administration to reduce expenses, it has been determined. Secretary of War John W. Weeks said to abandon six of the nine big camps now in existence.

It has been decided to continue Camp Dix, N. J., and Camp Lewis, Washington. Somewhere in the central or southern portion of the country the third will be maintained, and it is now a tossup between Camp Knox and Camp Travis, Tex. It is probable the government will continue to hold the ground where the camps are now located.

Just History

In '76
The Colonial Dame
Spun her cloth
By Candle flame.

In 1860
In Crinoline bright,
She greeted her guests
By Coal Oil light.

And later on,
How time does pass
Her home was lit
By flickering Gas.

But the girl of to-day
Who wants her home bright,
Just presses a button
And has Electric Light.

HOW DO YOU REGISTER JOY?

(Topics of The Day Films)
"Do people chuckle or laugh out loud when they read some quip in the newspaper that appeals to their sense of humor or enjoyment or sarcasm? Or is it only when the witicism is spoken or thrown on the screen that the average man or woman responds with an outward expression of appreciation? These thoughts are supplementary to a visit to a movie-picture house where 'Topics of The Day' films are reproduced on the screen," says the Rockton, Mass., Enterprise in an editorial. Readers, test your risibles with the 'Topics' we offer for your enjoyment:

Adv.—Personal: Horace—Please do not 'phone me again. Father is cleaning his gun.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

Howard—"My but you have a trim little waist!"

May—"Yes, there's no getting around that."—Michigan Gargoyle.

A sailor, coming home unexpectedly, threw his arm around his missus and kissed her. Without turning from her ironing she murmured: "A quart o' milk and a pint o' cream."—Our Navy Magazine.

Mrs. Murphy—"I suppose he gets all he wants at home."—Topics of The Day Films.

His Own 'Little Wife'—"I'll put the studs in your shirt, dear, if you'll powder my back."—Los Angeles Express.

Mrs. Morgan—"And so your boy has been taken off to a reformatory for stealing."

Mrs. Jameson—"What a shame!"

Mrs. Morgan—"Yes, isn't it! And him such a good boy, too. Always brought everything home to his mother."—London Mail.

"I'm sorry to have to do this," said little Johnny, as he spread the jam on the baby's face, "but I can't have suspicion pointing its finger at me."—Everybody's Magazine.

"Mike," said the judge sternly, "the testimony shows that you hit this man twice."

"I did not, y'r honor," declared the defendant stoutly. "The fur-rest time I hit him I missed him."—American Legion Weekly.

THAT DULL ACHING

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this statement:

Mrs. John Mastin, 1439 High St., Paris, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with very good results, for while I have never had any serious trouble I can tell by the help they gave me that they would be beneficial for kidney trouble. I had a dull aching across the small of my back and my kidneys acted irregularly. The use of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of these complaints and I have faith enough in them that should I ever need a kidney remedy I would certainly use Doan's Kidney Pills."

Mrs. Mastin gave the above statement November 9, 1916 and on November 13, 1920, she added: "I still have the same good opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I endorsed them before and I use them occasionally when I require a kidney tonic. They never fail to do me good and I am always telling my friends of the merits of Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mastin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Olive In South Africa.
The wild olive is found throughout South Africa, but all attempts to establish a successful industry have failed so far. The principal drawback to the industry is said to be the presence of the "olive fly," an insect well known to the olive-growing countries of Europe.

As a result of privation the present school generation in Germany is said to be doomed.
